ASSIGNMENT IN UTOPIA

by Eugene Lyons:

One of the most moving autobiographies of our day; discussed everywhere for its dramatic story and unprecedented disclosures about U.S.S.R.

As can be seen from the title the author went to Russia an ardent supporter of the Soviet and returned an outspoken critic. The average reader who perhaps might not care about politics will read this as a fascinating story of a man who grew up on New York's East side, worked his way through schools, supported himself by odd jobs of publicity and writing and then at the age of 30 set out for Moscow to be chief correspondent for the United Press.

The major portion of the book is devoted to the next six years, living and working close to the great Soviet events he was reporting to American readers. He met most of the leaders from Stalin down and came to know Russia and its people first hand and incorporates a large amount of behind the scenes information. In Russia he found great contrast between ideals and the grim realities around him and this clash between faith and fact provoked intense emotional struggle. Due to this the book is far more interesting than a merely adventurous story or a newspaperman's personal history.

ISLAND IN THE SUN

by Geoffrey and Kit Bret Hart: Against the advice of various counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Bret Harte went to Ischia for their honeymoon and having found it exactly what they hoped for spent an enchanted year on the little known island in the well known Bay of Naples. There are few books written on Ischia and if this is as widely read as is likely, the island will tempt more visitors. The author's good humor, descriptions of beautiful scenery, hospitable peasants and delectable food and drink picture an island paradise.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP

"Strip tease" technique enters the fashion field with evening skirts which slip off to reveal afternoon dresses, and wrap-around skirts which can become capes.

Succeeds Mrs. Sleeth; Child Welfare Aided Panel Discussion Held by Legion Auxiliary

Mrs. Charles Woodcock was elected president of Torrance high school Parent Teachers Association at a meeting held in the school music room last Friday. She succeeds Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, who has served as president of the group since their organization Feb. 17, 1936. During the past year Mrs. Woodcock has served as corresponding secretary and membership chairman for the local unit and as health chairman for the Gateway council. Her outstanding work merits her election to the highest office in the organization.

Other officers elected were: Miss Elizabeth Parks, first vice-president; Mrs. Wallace Post, second vice-president; Mrs. Charles Prowten, recording secretary; Mrs. Ed Schwartz, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Keefer, auditor; Mrs. W. H. Tolson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. J. McDonald, historian, and Mrs. Woodcock elected to serve as delegate to the state convention to be held in San Francisco next month.

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, whose election to the office of first vice-president of Gateway council brings honor to Torrance high association, was introduced at the meeting. She is a past president of local elementary unit and an active worker in the high school group. For the past year she has served as finance chairman for Gateway council and as magazine and emblem chairman in the high school.

A panel discussion in which parents and students discussed the younger generation proved interesting and entertaining. Students stated what they expect of parents and what they think parents have a right to expect of them. Their views offered much that was sound logic. Mrs. J. E. Hitchcock and Mrs. L. G. Barkdull, speaker for parents, were bolstered by members of the parent audience.

Students in the discussion were Virginia Traller, Marion Spitzer, Jean Bordeaux, Donald Seematter, Leroy Benner and Arthur Woodcock.

DISTRICT PRESIDENT CLUB SPEAKER

Bessie Stewart, whose dynamic personality and power of speech have made her an important personality in the Los Angeles District Federation of National Business and Professional Women and who Saturday was elected president of the district at the convention held in the Pacific Coast club at Long Beach will be guest speaker at the dinner meeting of Torrance club National Business and Professional Women, Monday, April 18, at 7:00 p. m. in McDonald hall.

Convention reports will be given by the club president, Kidding Parks; Bettina Miller and Lute Fraser, who were delegates. The publicity committee is in charge of arrangements for the meeting.

MRS. McCORMACK HONORED AGAIN

Mrs. D. M. McCormack was re-elected president of Central Evangelical guild at a meeting held in the J. Miller home 1217 Coia avenue, Tuesday. Other officers chosen were Mrs. Roy Winters, first vice president; Mrs. Julia Neelands, second vice president; Mrs. Marie Quigley, recording secretary; Mrs. Mary Lewis, treasurer and Mrs. Howard McDonald, corresponding secretary.

The success of the past year was celebrated with a potluck luncheon in the Miller home prior to election.

STAG PINOCLE PARTY FRIDAY

Pinocle furnished diversion at the stag party held in the home of Bud Edwards, 2208 Andree avenue, Friday evening. Those included were Messrs. Frank Thompson, Chas. Chicoine, Clarence Barnett, Louis Hankins, Wallace Gilbert, D. A. Barnard, Kelly and Field. Chicoine and Kelly were winners.

Outstanding in this week's social affairs was the 19th District American Legion Auxiliary's annual child welfare bridge party held in the Torrance Civic Auditorium yesterday and attended by some 300 women from the 22 units in the district.

Lucille Lowellen, 19th district president; Ruth Tucker, district child welfare chairman, and Fan Wilkes, district secretary and Bert S. Crossland Unit child welfare chairman, served on the general committee.

Outstanding entertainment furnished during the dessert hour included novelty dances by Virginia Crandall and pupils of her dance studio. Master Bobby Crandall and Lee Allen Carvello gave an interpretation of the "groovy dance."

Dainty Misses Patty Bpcher, Patty Findley, Patty Moore and Janet Lowellen were enthusiastically received when they danced a novelty tap number to the music of "Easter Parade." Mrs. Jean Findley accompanied the dancers. Vocal solos were given by Miss Margaret Kibbe of Torrance and Mrs. Margaret Decker of Lynwood.

Mrs. L. M. Fernley, 1552 Post avenue, was the only local woman to receive a prize although 32 were awarded during the afternoon.

JERRY HARDER HOST AT PARTY

Jerry Harder, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harder, 1604 Greenwood avenue, called in ten young friends last Saturday afternoon to help celebrate his third birthday. The party was held in the patio at his home, with an Easter egg hunt and simple games for entertainment, followed by delicious refreshments. Guests included Sharon Felker, Tommy DeFouri, Patty and Marguerite McCandless, of Redondo Beach, Roger McCandless, of Whittier, Julie Rhone, Mary Elizabeth Ashley, Donald Mitchell, Erline Simonson, and Connie Smith.

CLUB WILL VISIT CALIFORNIA HOME

Mrs. Edwin Morang, 1437 Post avenue, entertained the Friday Morning club Tuesday evening at a beautifully appointed party in her home. The Easter motif prevailed, with spring flowers in profusion as added decorations. The club members devoted most of the evening to a business session, and planned a trip at an early date to visit the Eastern Star home at Brentwood and the California house, a model home, at Westwood Village.

MRS. FLETCHER ENTERTAINS CLUB

Mrs. A. E. Fletcher entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Aeolia avenue Tuesday afternoon. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Albert Isen, Mrs. Ellis Owens and Mrs. W. Putman. Others included were Misses Disario, Tom Shriver, May Smith and Raymond Rogers.

MISSIONARY WHITE CROSS WORK

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet Thursday, April 21, at 10 a. m. Luncheon will be served at noon, and the afternoon will be devoted to white cross work.
